

SONOMA FORGING AHEAD

New Projects Under Way Prove Sonoma's New Era

WE HAVE HEARD a lot about old Sonoma and know about its history well. But the new Sonoma makes its bow today, all dressed up in its modern paved streets, a proper foundation on which to build the substantial splendid future in store for our city and valley. The following are some of the projects which spell prosperity and progress and will usher in the new era of which we have all been confident.

- 1—Progress on Black Point cut-off highway work, now being paved from Ignacio to Fairville.
- 2—Route of Schellville-Santa Rosa State highway decided upon, surveys made and work to start in the spring.
- 3—Contract let for the first ninety-machine capacity ferry boat of the new Golden Gate Ferry Company. Service to start in May.
- 4—Sonoma Valley's new $115,000 High School on site recently purchased, to be erected early in 1922. New district school to be built in Watsonville district.
- 5—Golf links to be put in shape at once on the Bigelow property lately leased to the Sonoma Valley Golf Club. $15,000 to be expended on site already highly improved and beautifully equipped for a country club.
- 6—Sonoma Valley Water merger and irrigation project, capitalized for half a million dollars, approved by the Railroad Commission. Improvements and extensions to start at once.
- 7—Modern hotel and stores to be erected on site between Post Office and Duhring's corner by Sam Sebastiani the first of the year. This is just one of many big improvements and contemplated by the wealthy wine man and bank director who is now building his twentieth new bungalow on residence property east of town. Sebastiani also plans to modernize his recent purchase, Weyl's corner, one of the principal approaches to town from the N. W. P. depot.

8—Cement sidewalks to be built on both sides of Broadway to the City limits, also along Napa St., more streets to be repaired and sewer extensions contemplated.

9—Plaza beautification undertaken by Sonoma Business Mens association, with Sonoma Valley Women's Club pledged to assist.

10—Continued betterment of modern fire protection afforded by Sonoma's combination water and chemical fire engine, two chemical engine stationed at Boyes Springs for valley wide protection and the purchase of another engine by Caliente Park improvement club.

11—Building of the Jack London Memorial Library at Glen Ellen.

12—Locating of Thos. Harrison and his prize winning herd of milking shorthorn cattle in the upper part of Sonoma Valley. Harrison's stock farm was formerly at Santa Rosa.

13—Extensions and improvements by Sonoma Valley baby chick producers. Fred Hansen erecting an immense new plant.

14—Intensive cultivation and care of Sonoma wine grape vineyards with confident prediction of continued demand for grapes at handsome prices. Legalizing of medicinal wines to create market for some of Sonoma's famous vintages.

15—Interurban car of California Car company to be tried out over Sonoma branch of N. W. P. railroad with a view of giving better and more frequent service between San Rafael and Sonoma Valley.

16—Many improvements and additions to summer resorts throughout the valley.

17—Oil in locations in western foothills of El Verano declared by geologists to be best in California.

18—Sonoma's weekly newspaper—Index-Tribune—to be enlarged to eight pages, with automatic folder, necessitated by increased circulation.

GOLDEN GATE FERRY SERVICE BY MAY FIRST

Contract Let and approved For Company's First Ferry Boat

Work will be rushed at once on construction of the first ferry boat for Golden Gate Ferry Company, it has been announced by officials of the company. The contract has been let to James Robertson's Alameda shipyard, and the Railroad Commission of California has just approved the contracts of the company and given permission to expend money now held in escrow for construction work.

It is planned to begin actual construction work on the slips and wharves on or before the first of January so that they will be ready to take care of the boat which will be running in May. The finances of the company are in good condition and the stock to take care of the second boat is now being placed. It is going fast and it is believed by the officials of the company that it will all be disposed of before the close of the year. It is expected that the stock will then take a rise in the market.

Stockholders and friends of the company are invited to visit the shipyard of James Robertson in Alameda within a short time and see the actual construction work on the first boat to be built for what will surely be a large fleet of auto ferry boats.

STRONG INTEREST IN EGG LAYING CONTEST

The poultrymen were deeply interested in the egg laying contest which closed October 30th, and are now planning to enter birds in the next contest at Petaluma.

In the recent contest out of 36 pens of 12 hens each, or 432 hens, that began the contest on November 1, 1920, 388 were still in at the finish. Forty-four hens, or 10 and 18-100 per cent, died during the year. This is a very good mortality record.

Considering the 432 birds starting in the contest and 44 which died during the year, the average number of hens in the contest for the entire year would be figured as 410. For the 410 the average production was 176 eggs per hen.

One hundred and twenty-five hens laid 200 eggs or more, and of these 22 hens laid between 200 and 210 eggs; 32 hens laid between 210 and 220 eggs; 27 hens laid between 220 and 230 eggs; 16 hens laid between 230 and 240 eggs; 10 hens laid between 240 and 250 eggs; 18 hens laid between 250 and 280 eggs.

Of the 125 hens which finished the contest with a record of 200 eggs or above, none moulted before September 1st, and only 35 moulted before October 30th. Of these latter 35 hens, 22 started to moult in September and 13 in October.

GLEN ELLEN N. S. G. W. HAD FINE TIME

Chauvet Hall, with its decorations of ferns, redwood boughs and other forest greens, never looked prettier than as decorated by the Glen Ellen boys for the Native Sons dance there last Saturday evening.

There was a jolly crowd of young folks and all had a fine time to the music played by Perkins Bros five-piece orchestra.

Miss host McMullen, of the Chauvet, served a tempting repast at midnight, after which dancing was resumed.

APPLE GROWERS REPORT FOR 1921 SEASON

Interesting Data On Shipments for 1921 Brought Out at Meeting of Association Monday Night

The Sonoma Valley Apple Growers' Association held an interesting and important meeting at their Vineburg packing house headquarters last Monday night. In addition to the report of the products of the 1921 season and the returns on the same, plans were under discussion for next year.

It developed that if 1922 is a big apple season the packing house will hardly be big enough, as it was worked to its utmost capacity this year, although the crop was considerably short. The fruit packed and shipped from the packing house this summer and prices were as follows:

Apples—25,000 boxes, 4 tier at $2.27; 4 tier at $2.15; 4 tier "B" grade at $1.78; 4 tier "C" grade at $1.50 per box. Pears—10 carloads at $65 per ton.

Grapes—8-10 carloads at $90 per ton. Dried Prunes—8 carloads.

Horticultural Commissioner Brenner of the county addressed the meeting and promised aid in the fight against green aphids.

Inspection of apples was also under discussion.

New platform scales and graders will be put in next season by the fast growing business concern which is fostered by the following prominent fruit growers: President, Geo. Cassidy; Secretary, Fred Rubke; Directors, R. L. Watt, E. Clements, H. Hyde, F. Rubke, Geo. Cassidy, Chas. Cutter and Will Dunn.

VETERAN COMES FROM NEBRASKA TO VISIT DAUGHTER

A. T. Rowe, veteran of the civil war, aged 82 years, arrived here from Nebraska Monday to visit his daughter, Mrs. W. W. Carter. The old gentleman sent a special delivery to announce his coming upon his arrival in San Francisco but his Sonoma relatives did not receive it until after he arrived. Mr. Rowe will spend the winter here. He was on the Coast previously in 1915 when he came out to attend the Panama-Pacific Fair.

Whereas: Three separate State Bond Issues have been voted and made in part for the purpose of paving the Cloverdale-Healdsburg link of the State Highway in Sonoma County and

Whereas: Governor Stephens and several members of his Highway Commission, at the time of their last campaign for re-election, assured the people of this section, in a public meeting on our main street, that said entire link of State Highway would be constructed and paved within a year, and

SANITY LEAGUE GETS BIG ENROLLMENT HERE

The Sanity League, whose object is the amending of the drastic un-American prohibition laws of the U. S. A., had two representatives here Tuesday, and Mr. P. Williams, one of the gentlemen, declared that he secured a large enrollment among all classes of people. Several reputed "drys" signed the roll, explaining to Mr. Williams that they believed prohibition as in effect in the county is far more vicious than former conditions, and while retarding temperance, is raising the taxes of the county shamefully.

The Sanity League has many members in every state of the Union, and I. S. Pelton, the president for California, has his headquarters in San Francisco. The League has startling statistics of crime conditions and the drug traffic under prohibition.

A check for $25 was received by Chief Cause this week through Jack Main and L. Moutier in behalf of the Scottish Union and National Insurance company who appreciated the work of the fire ladders at the recent fire on the Main place and its surroundings. Mrs. Blesch also sent in $5.

A powerful new search light has been added to the Valley Angel for night runs.

VANNUCCHI'S $1,000 DOG MAKES SONOMA KNOWN

Through the beak of the American record in the quarter mile grayhound classic at St. Louis, Missouri, recently, "Badly Blended," the $1000 winning dog, owned by Paul Vannucchi, is making Sonoma known to followers of the sport everywhere. Badly Blended, an imported English dog, participated in the annual "Waterloo" and covered the quarter mile in 25 seconds. The purse of $1000 was captured by Vannucchi through the winning of his prize dog over six contenders. 12,000 people witnessed the race.

Breeders of the Middle West now all know the Vannucchi kennels in Sonoma Valley, California.

San Sebastiani is to join the Elks Lodge at Santa Rosa.

SANTA ROSA MEN TALK TAXES TO CLUB WOMEN

Hoke Smith, the county assessor, and Samson B. Wright, prominent Santa Rosans, addressed the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club Friday afternoon of last week. They told of the increased cost of county government and urged economy and retrenchment. Mr. Wright urged the women to attend the coming mass meeting at Santa Rosa.

The members were visibly impressed with the concrete instances of county extravagance recited by the speakers and individually pledged their help at effecting retrenchment.

SONOMA MERCHANTS AND SONOMA'S FUTURE

PROBABLY NOTHING is as important to Sonoma's future as the fostering of the trade at home idea. We all realize that Sonoma Valley is coming into its own. Opportunity has knocked and been admitted. Just how much of the new prosperity wave Sonoma City will get depends upon co-operation between the local stores and the buying public.

The local merchants were splendid boosters for the new paved streets, the completion of which we are celebrating today. They realized that trade goes along the line of least resistance, and that with modern well-paved arteries leading into town the buying public would come this way. The merchants who advocated and were successful in getting Sonoma's fine new streets are just as awake to the rest of the program which must be carried out if Sonoma is to forge ahead and prosper. Trade must not only come this way; it must be kept coming this way by fair dealing, honest values, service and quality merchandise.

The merchants of Sonoma pledge the buying public these essentials of a satisfactory bargain with their customers and today (Saturday) inaugurate special bargain inducements which speak for themselves.

PATRONIZE YOUR HOME MERCHANT.
Encourage him to keep his stock replenished with a big line of merchandise and to do business on a scale which will justify close margin selling and keep abreast with latest merchandising methods.

Let us make this honest resolve to build up Sonoma and Sonoma Valley. Let TRADE-AT-HOME be your motto and watch the home town grow.

THE STATE HOME "SCANDAL"

MALICIOUS GOSSIP which got to the ear of one of the Board of Managers of a Sonoma Valley institution and dignified itself into the proportions of an investigation, ended as predicted in the complete exoneration of the medical superintendent. Woman's jealousy, spleen and vindictiveness were evident throughout the charges, and testimony which was supposed to bolster up the case of those who inspired it failed to materialize. The plot had been brewing a long time and is declared to have had its origin in the aspirations of a woman politician to run the home or seat herself on the Board of Managers. Scheming women who mix up in politics frequently find out that people they think they control cannot be worked like jumping-jacks on strings. Women can be of splendid utility in public places, but the ambitious, scheming woman who thinks she has a mission to fulfill can cause a lot of trouble, the aftermath of which is usually trouble for the innocent they entangle.

While we all realize that public institutions and their administrations are not spotless, we do know that the State Home in Sonoma Valley cares for its inmates well, that the attendants are well able to look after themselves and that the head of the institution is above the average professional man—competent, young, alert and vigilant, without pretense of sanctimony or hypocritical pretense. Perhaps some doddering pretender with pious mien might look better to some in the position, but there was abundance of testimony that the present superintendent is giving great satisfaction and filling the office efficiently.

STATUS OF COUNTY DIVISION

The Committee of Fifteen in charge of the new county movement has paid all bills to date, final arrangements having been made at a recent meeting. The members of the committee feel gratified at the success of their work thus far. Whether the new county will be a reality or not, is still in doubt, but the committee has accomplished all that they started out to accomplish in the way of getting up the petition, and getting the test case the county division laws in the Supreme Court.

The court action which will decide the constitutionality of the county division laws was finally submitted to the Supreme Court on the 15th day of August. Almost ninety days have passed and still there is no decision. Usually in cases of this kind the decision is handed down by the Superior Court within two weeks. In this case, however, it appears that the Supreme Court is taking plenty of time to render a careful decision. This is quite natural, owing to the extreme importance of the case. Upon the decision will mean whether or not ten or fifteen new counties will be established in the State of California. The Supreme Court has been known to take decidedly more than ninety days to decide other cases, where the importance of the decision is as strong and as far reaching as this one. While the decision may come any day, the Supreme Court can take several more months to decide as they want to.—Petaluma Courier.

WARNING

Attention is respectfully called to the fact that merchants and other business men are in the habit of cashing checks for strangers, and after finding that the checks are no good, it is usually from four to ten days before report is made to the Sheriff's office, which makes it almost impossible to find the maker of the check.

I would particularly urge you to NEVER cash checks for strangers unless they can be identified. Bankers will not do it, so why should you?

LA PEER FACES SUIT OVER PLUMBING BILL

A complaint filed in the Superior Court Tuesday by Otto H. Rottermundt and Robert F. Abele charges H. F. La Peer, Charlotte and H. W. Kenworthy with failure to pay the balance of $208.91 due on a bill for installing plumbing. La Peer is the man now in the toils at San Francisco on charges of bootlegging.

The plaintiffs, who are co-partners, claim that they were hired to install the complete plumbing in the house occupied by the defendants and that only $20 of the original $228.91 was ever paid. They executed a lien on the premises and wish to add the cost of the lien, the costs of the suit and attorney's fees to the amount due.

ALL CALIFORNIA BACKS STATE'S ALMOND FARMERS IN TARIFF BILL FIGHT

Growers Face Destruction Of 100,000 Acres of Orchards Unless Congress Amends Bill

San Francisco.—Claiming the support of every loyal Californian, 4,000 almond growing farmers of the State will carry their fight for adequate tariff duties on almonds through the Senate Finance Committee if the present tariff bill is not amended on the floor of the House in Congress, T. C. Tucker, manager of the California Almond Growers' Exchange, declared here. "More than $15,000,000 will be lost annually to California if the destructive schedules proposed in the new tariff measure prevail," Tucker said.

The bill accords the California growers only four cents on unshelled almonds and eight cents on shelled nuts. "This is vitally inadequate," the growers point out, "because California almonds shell out three to one." That is, it takes three pounds of the unshelled nuts to make one pound of shelled almonds.

They are asking that this natural shelling ratio of three to one be preserved in the new tariff bill and are asking a duty of five cents on unshelled and fifteen cents on shelled almonds. "We were entitled," Tucker said, "to a four-to-one ratio as the cheaply produced and cheaply shelled almonds grown by the peasants of Southern Europe shell out four to one. We asked less than we were entitled to."

More than 40,000,000 pounds of the peasant-grown almonds were imported by American speculators during 1920 alone, according to growers' figures. To date, the California growers have not been able to sell a single shelled almond in the United States because of the ruinous competition of cheap Southern European labor with low standards of living and trans-Atlantic freight rates of foreign ships favoring them.

Today California stands at the threshold of the tremendous future of almond growing. She is the only state in the Union where almonds can be grown. More than 100,000 acres of her soil nourishing 7,000,000 trees will be in full production within three years. These trees will produce an annual crop conservatively estimated at 70,000,000 pounds of nuts.

Eighty per cent of the American almond demand is for the shelled nut, the growers state. "We can not hope to maintain our orchards unless Congress grants us our fair share of this demand of our own people," Tucker concluded. He said the demand for unshelled nuts was comparatively small and seasonal and that California almonds would have to be uprooted by millions after years of culture unless the shelled market is adequately protected with a three-to-one ratio in the tariff bill.

One hundred thousand acres of California's soil planted to 7,000,000 almond trees and representing annual return to growers of $15,000,000 are at stake in fight to amend almond schedules in new tariff bill. You can help by wiring your congressmen today to support growers' demands.

Adequate tariff on California almonds is vital to every resident of California. Wire your congressmen today for his support.

PLAIN FARMER WRITES LETTER

San Francisco.—Every Representative and Senator in Washington ought to read this letter from a California farmer:

"Paradise, Calif., June 30, 1921.

"Dear Sir:
"I would like to ask if you think almonds will be worth harvesting this year. I haven't got the money to harvest unless you think there is some chance of selling them."

"A man offered me his crop the other day. He said he would sell them cheap and that I could feed them to my hogs. Do you think there will be any more payments on last year's crop. I have about eight tons this year."

This almond grower, who, unfortunately, must not be named, wrote that letter to his co-operative organization, the California Almond Growers Exchange here. There are four thousand California almond farmers in the same fix.

They asked the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives to put a duty of five cents on unshelled almonds and fifteen cents on shelled nuts because almonds shell three pounds to one. They want a fair chance at the American market, now entirely in the hands of speculators who dumped 40,000,000 pounds of peasant-grown Southern European almonds on the American market last year.

The Ways and Means Committee reported out duties of four and eight cents, paying no attention to the natural shelling ratio. The farmers declare their 100,000 acres of California soil nurturing 7,000,000 trees and representing an investment of $50,000,000 are doomed to almost complete destruction by the provisions of the tariff bill. Fifty per cent of American demand is for shelled almonds, according to the growers, and the three to one shelling ratio must be maintained in the tariff bill if they are to exist.

FARMERS FORCED TO CLOSE PLANT

Sacramento.—L. G. Kimber, manager of the California Almond Growers Exchange here, announced that the new $300,000 shelling plant recently built by the growers will probably have to be abandoned if Congress fails to revise almond schedules in the new tariff bill. Reports from Chico state that the growers are disconsolate and will probably be forced to close their plant there.

The California almond farmers cultivating 7,000,000 trees on 100,000 acres of land are asking five cents tariff on unshelled and fifteen cents on the shelled Southern European almond, the natural three shelling ratio of these nuts, in order to give the California product a chance in the American market with the peasant-produced almond from abroad. The money investment of the California growers in their orchards is placed at more than $50,000,000.

Wire your representatives and senators in Washington today demanding fair revision of almond tariff rate.

GOV'T OPERATION OUT OF POLITICS

Party Leaders Convinced by Results of National Canvass of Editors.

VINDICATES FORMER POLL.

Overwhelming Veto Like That of Year Before From Both Sides of Political Fence.

Washington.—Inner circles of both parties here are greatly interested in the results of a national poll on the question of government operation among over 5,000 newspaper editors throughout the country. With 86 per cent of these editors, regardless of political faith, giving it as their impartial opinion that the public is more than ever opposed to the government going into business in competition with its citizens, observers here see little chance that either political party will find it a profitable campaign issue.

In the opinion of party leaders this sort of a canvass among newspaper editors is the best possible index of public opinion. They recall a similar questionnaire sent out a year ago in connection with the proposition that the government take over the railroads permanently. Replies at that time from approximately the same number of editors showed 83 per cent against the principle of government operation. They recall also that within ten days from publication of the result of the former questionnaire the sentiment for return of the railroads to their owners had definitely crystallized.

Comparison of present results in detail with those of a year ago convinces the political student not only that these editors have been accurate in their judgment, but that party considerations played no part in forming it. From Democratic and supposedly radical Texas, for example, the present questionnaire brought replies from editors of 244 papers, out of three of which are Republicans. Yet the percentage against government operation was 92, which is exactly the same as that given by 200 editors from Republican Michigan, among whom were representatives of only three Democratic papers. Other states that pair percentages significantly are Massachusetts and Nevada with 100; Connecticut and South Carolina with 97; Maine and West Virginia with 96; Kentucky and New York with 91; Missouri and Pennsylvania with 89; Ohio and Oklahoma with 87.

The result of the present poll as to government operation in each state are graphically shown by the following chart:

850 DISASTER DEATH TOLL FOR ONE YEAR

Red Cross Gives $1,871,000 Relief When 65,000 Families Are Made Homeless.

Forty-three disasters, resulting in the death in the United States of 850 persons and the injury of 2,500 called for emergency relief measures and the expenditure of $1,871,000 by the American Red Cross during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1921, says an announcement based upon the forthcoming annual report of the Red Cross. These disasters caused property damage estimated at $30,000,000, affected sixty-seven communities and rendered 65,000 families homeless.

The year's disasters were of varying types, including several which previously had never been thought of as falling within that classification. The Red Cross furnished relief in seventeen fires of magnitude, five floods, seven tornadoes or cyclones, one devastating storm, three typhoid epidemics, the most serious being that at Salem, Ohio, which affected 9 per cent of the population; one smallpox epidemic, in the republic of Haiti; one train wreck, the race riot at Tulsa, Okla.; the famine in China, emergency relief in famine among the Indians of Alaska, the grasshopper plague in North Dakota and an earthquake in Italy.

By far the most severe of the disasters in the United States during the period covered by the Red Cross report was the Pueblo flood early in June, 1921. The rehabilitation problem confronting the Red Cross in Pueblo was one of the most difficult in recent years. When the first news of the horror was flashed throughout the country, the American Red Cross National Headquarters responded with a grant of $105,000 for relief work. Governor Shoup of Colorado, appreciating the long and successful experience of the Red Cross in organizing disaster relief work, placed the entire responsibility for the administration of relief in its hands.

In response to appeals from President Harding, Governor Shoup and other governors of western states and through local chapters of the Red Cross and other community organizations, public-spirited citizens brought the total contribution for Pueblo's rehabilitation to more than $325,000.

The terrible havoc wrought by the flood waters is a matter of record. More than 2,300 homes were affected and 7,351 persons were left homeless. Estimates of $500,000 as an absolute minimum for rehabilitation were made by Red Cross officials in charge of the relief work.

Fast Work in Wall Street

The Wall street explosion was notable in that relief workers of the Red Cross were on the scene twenty minutes after the disaster occurred. The race riot at Tulsa also was unique in disaster relief annals in that outside of a small emergency relief fund contributed by the Red Cross, the only relief measures outside the city consisted of the service of social workers, nurses and a trained executive whose object was to assist local forces in directing their own efforts.

In decided contrast with the previous year, only one tornado assumed the proportions of a major disaster. This occurred on April 15, in the border sections of Texas and Arkansas with the city of Texarkana as the center. The significant feature of this disaster relief work was the fact that it covered so much rural territory as to make necessary a large number of relief workers.

The famine in China, necessitating relief expenditures totaling more than $1,000,000 by the American Red Cross was by far the most serious of the foreign disasters in which the Red Cross gave aid.

Builds Up Its Machinery

In connection with the administration of disaster relief measures, an increasing effectiveness on the part of the Red Cross to deal with emergencies was manifested during the past year. In 1920, 1,274 chapters of the American Red Cross there have been formed special committees to survey the resources of their respective communities and to be prepared in case of disaster. In others of the 3,102 active chapters, a network of communication has been formed through which instantaneous relief may be dispatched to any part of the United States.

That its work in this field may be continued with ever greater effectiveness, the American Red Cross is appealing for widespread renewal of membership during its Annual Roll Call, to be conducted this year from November 11 to 24.

LIFE SAVING CORPS ENROLLMENT 10,000

Growth of Red Cross Life Saving Corps throughout the country continued unabated during the last fiscal year, a summary of the year's achievements by that Red Cross Service shows. There are now 100 Corps with a total membership of more than 10,000 members, of which 1,274 are sufficiently skilled in the work to act as examiners. Among the outstanding achievements of the Red Cross in this field during the last year was the organization at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, of what is perhaps the largest life saving corps in the world.

FORD Correct Lubrication Chart

Engine—1. Daily, or every 100 miles, pour sufficient fresh Zerolene No. 3 (former designation Medium) into crankcase through filler pipe to bring level of oil to upper oil drain cock located on side of combination flywheel housing and oil reservoir. The oil level should not be allowed to rise higher than the upper oil drain cock, nor to drop lower than the lower oil drain cock. If too much oil has been poured into the crankcase during filling, the upper oil drain cock should be left open until all surplus oil has drained out to that level. The motor should not be operated except with both upper and lower oil drain cocks closed. To get correct indication of oil level, the automobile should be approximately level and the engine not running.

At regular intervals, as recommended by the manufacturer, or, in the absence of such instructions, every 750 miles the oil in the crankcase reservoir should be entirely renewed in the following manner: First, remove drain plug in bottom of flywheel housing, allowing all old oil to drain. This should preferably be done when engine is warm, as the old oil when heated will drain faster, and less of it will adhere to the inner surfaces of the crankcase. Next, replace drain plug and pour four quarts of Calol Flushing Oil into the crankcase through filler pipe. Then start and operate the engine under its own power at a moderate idling speed for from one to two minutes, by which time all oil passages and inner surfaces will have been cleansed by the action of the flushing oil. The oil reservoir is now clean, but the splash troughs under the connecting rods are still filled with a mixture of flushing oil and old engine oil. To clean out these troughs leave plug out of bottom of oil reservoir and pour in sufficient fresh Zerolene Oil through the filler pipe to displace this dirty oil, which will be indicated by a flow of clean, fresh oil coming out of the plug hole below. When certain that all flushing oil has been drained from crankcase, replace the drain plug and pour into the filler pipe sufficient fresh oil to fill reservoir to proper level. Approximately four quarts of oil are required. When filling the reservoir through filler pipe, care should be taken that no dirt or other foreign matter is carried into the engine with the fresh oil.

Rear Axle—15. Every 500 miles remove filler plug in rear of differential housing and put in sufficient fresh Zerolene Transmission Lubricant "BBB" to fill the housing one-third full, or approximately to height of filler plug.

Every 2000 miles the differential housing should be drained and thoroughly washed out with Pearl Oil (kerosene) and fresh lubricant placed in the housing. Care should be taken that the kerosene is thoroughly drained from the compartment before Zerolene Transmission Lubricant "BBB" is added.

Electric Generator—7. Every 250 miles apply three or four drops of Zerolene No. 3 to rear armature shaft bearings through oil cup provided for the purpose.

Commutator or Distributor—16. Daily or every 100 miles, apply two or three drops of Standard Household Lubricant through oil cup provided for the purpose.

Front Wheel Bearings—4-22. Every 2000 miles remove front wheels and wash bearings and hubs thoroughly with Pearl Oil (kerosene). Repack hubs and bearings with fresh Zerolene Cup Grease and replace wheels, being careful to get proper adjustment on wheel bearings.

Springs—14-19. Every 500 miles, or whenever springs squeak, clean off all dirt and old oil and apply a small quantity of Standard Household Lubricant along the edges of spring leaves. A small brush may be used for this purpose, or the oil applied by means of Standard Household Lubricant Handy Can with spout attached.

Steering Gears—25. Every 3000 miles unscrew the cap covering the steering gears (under steering wheel) and pack housing with Zerolene Cup Grease.

Grease Cups. Daily, or every 100 miles, turn down all grease cups about two complete turns, refilling cups with fresh Zerolene Cup Grease when empty. Particular attention is directed to the two grease cups (12-28) which supply the lubricant for the rear wheel bearings, as these bearings are not lubricated by the action of the lubricant in the differential housing. Attention is also directed to grease cups on fan shaft (17) bearings at base of steering column (18) and universal joint (8).

General Lubrication. Daily, or every 100 miles, use squirt can to apply Zerolene No. 3 to all oil cups, joints and small working parts not otherwise lubricated, such as spark and throttle control connections (24), brake clevis pins (9-11-27), spring bolts (2-13-20-29), steering spindle bolts (3-31), hub brake came (10-26), steering ball sockets (6), cross steering rod pins (5-23), etc.

Schedule of Lubrication. Daily, or every 100 miles: Engine Oil Level; Grease Cups; General Lubrication; Commutator or Distributor. Every 250 miles: Electric Generator. Every 500 miles: Rear Axle; Springs. Every 750 miles: Drain, flush and refill Crankcase. Every 2000 miles: Rear Axle Housing; Front Wheel Bearings. Every 3000 miles: Steering Gears.

Note: When daily average temperature is below 45° F., Zerolene No. 1 should be used instead of Zerolene No. 3.

REBEKAHS AND ODD FELLOWS MASQUERADE

One of the most enjoyable pre-holiday affairs in fraternal circles was the masquerade at I. O. O. F. hall last week, given as the social conclusion of the Rebekah meeting Thursday the 3rd. There were many comical and beautiful costumes, but the hit of the evening was George Angove in his female garb of a suffragette. He was made up regardless, and with John Wagner who impersonated an ardent admirer, the team afforded everyone present lots of amusement. John and his "girl" were the best sustained characters of the evening.

CAUSED ARREST FOR NON-ATTENDANCE

In conformity with the new State law requiring all minors to attend school, School Attendance Officer C. W. Wiggins caused an arrest of a well known Sonoma young man last week. He also warned his employer that he was liable for not having a permit to employ a boy of school age. The boy was taken before the Justice of the Peace who imposed a fine of $10, suspending sentence on the promise that the defendant would attend part time school.

Mr. Wiggins declares that he will strictly enforce the law, requiring all young people to go to school.

SONOMA, NOVEMBER 12, 1921

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The pupils of the entire school were given a spelling test last week. The purpose of the test was to determine who could not spell and organize a separate class for them.

Among those who missed two words or less were the following:

Fourth Year—Emily Batto, Irene Tracey, Spencer Merz,

Third Year—Anna Noyes, Harry Halprin, Donald Prestwood, El Verna Steckmeyer, Marie Anderson, Rosie Arreola, Anita Camp.

Second Year—Evelyn Cordell, Verna Steckmeyer, Roy Wirtz

First Year—Andrew Anderson, Harry Anderson, Harry Scholl, Vesta Prestwood.

The only perfect paper was that of Anita Camp. The test was given without any preparation on the part of the students, it coming entirely without warning.

Similar tests will be given in other elementary subjects to find the weak students and build them up.

Sonoma High won the Northwestern League championship in tennis last Saturday by defeating Napa High in the League finals at a neutral court in Petaluma. A hot contest was looked for as Napa High had won the Napa, Marin and Sonoma county championships with but the loss of one set while Sonoma won the Sonoma county champion set without the loss of a set in all their matches, and a hot contest it certainly was. In the first singles, Herschel Hyde led 4 to 1 games in the first set but by brilliant playing and serving, the Napa champ, Archie Rice, won four games in rapid succession and finally the set was 7 to 5. Hyde then won the next set 6 to 3 by driving Rice from the net. In the third and deciding set, Sonoma won the first game but after a hot contest, Napa took the next three games and made the score 3 to 1 in their favor. Rice then faulted and Hyde took the next two games—both love games, making the score 3 all. The games then varied to 4 all, with Sonoma serving. By rushing to net at every opportunity, especially after the serve, Sonoma finally won, making it 5 to 4 in their favor. This game was really the deciding game of the match and the heat was so terrific that it became an endurance contest, accompanied by brilliant net playing and beautiful placement shots. Both players placed exactly alike but the continual rushing of the net by Herschel, eventually won for him. With the score 4 to 5, Sonoma won Rice's serve easily for the deciding game. The total score was 5-7, 6-3, 6-4. There was little to choose between either player and the total point score Hyde, 103 to Rice's 94 shows how evenly matched the two players were.

The doubles started out like a whirlwind affair, Sonoma taking the first two sets, 6-1, 6-3, the smashing of Don Prestwood being a feature in the second set. In the third set, the fighting spirit which made Archie Rice win the Napa, Solano and Marin championships was shown and although Prestwood and Hyde had 'point set, match, tournament championships' etc., many times Rice always managed to delay the day of doom for Napa. Napa finally won the third set 7-5. Sonoma ran out the last set very rapidly to 4-0 and then after many exciting rallies, won the set 6-2 and the championship of the League without the loss of either a single or doubles. Herschel Hyde and Don Prestwood won from Rice and Heflin of Napa 6-1, 6-3, 5-7, 6-2. Kennon Gilbert, the third man on the team, did not get a chance to play, but we feel sure he would have won from Heflin of Napa as he had already defeated him in a practice game.

A brilliant future is looked for next spring when Sonoma High will get a chance to continue its schedule for the North Coast Section Championship in May. Herschel Hyde, Don Prestwood and Kennon Gilbert won their block "S" by winning the county championship as well as the League Pennant for Sonoma High.

Plans are to be submitted by the architect for perhaps the final approval of the High School Board who will then call for bids for the new building. There has been some changes made in the size of the class rooms.

It develops that the Trustees made a splendid buy of the land which is to be the site of Sonoma's handsome new Union High School. Neighboring cities have been paying three times as much for school property and if the Sonoma trustees had waited, they would probably have had to pay the coming advanced land prices too. It was a good and far-sighted business deal to say nothing of the progressive educational trend.

DR. BUTLER EXONERATED OF ALL CHARGES

Following is a detailed statement issued by the State Board of Charities and Corrections, showing step by step how the charges against Dr. Butler were either withdrawn or unsubstantiated:

The charges of flagrant conditions of immorality among attendants and inmates are withdrawn by complainant, Major C. E. Haven, as being without foundation; the whole group of charges under "A" constitute a series of statements grossly exaggerated and not sustained by evidence; on the other hand, it is possible that the source of some of the complaints therein contained may be found to contain breaches of discipline.

Mismanagement and Incompetency
Under this general title are enumerated eleven items as follows:

1. Too frequent absence from the institution by the superintendent, especially during the last year.

This charge was not substantiated.

2. Major Haven charges that Dr. Butler was absent on his vacation in Los Angeles during the influenza epidemic at the institution, and remained away for three weeks, though having knowledge, or should have been aware of the conditions existing. (See records.)

This charge was not substantiated.

3. Major Haven states that Dr. Whittington charges incompetent surgery by Dr. Butler, and cites the cases of Leslie Casper, as set forth in Dr.

Whittington's information of Dr. Butler, submitted.

This charge was withdrawn by the complainant.

4. Also in the case of Frances Thomas, cited by Dr. Whittington, call on Dr. Thoren and others for testimony.

This charge was withdrawn by the complainant.

5. Robert P. Hill, Eldridge, states he saw two boys, inmates of the Home, on the country road, two miles from the institution, about dusk, masked, and told them to go home.

Proven in part, involving a minor matter of discipline.

6. Dr. Butler took advantage of the Board of Managers in remodeling his residence on signed blank requisitions.

This charge was withdrawn by the complainant.

7. Investigation as to the prevalence of the "itch" in North Cottage should be made.

Investigation has been made; there are at present no cases of "scabies" (itch) in the cottage.

8. Charles Schram, father of Elizabeth Schram, alleges that his daughter was struck by a soup ladle in the dining room at the Home by Miss Rourke Witness, a girl named "Rosie". Also that Elizabeth Schram has been deprived of her clothing and placed in a straight jacket. Mrs. Dickinson, (matron) and Miss Blaska, could give testimony on this.

This charge was not substantiated.

10. Mrs. Dickinson charges that head nurse and assistant, at hospital, smoke constantly, and drink, sometimes, neglect their duties.

The Board finds that there has been in the institution for over a year a head nurse with certain associates whose conduct has offered good ground for criticism. The attitude of this employee in a position of responsibility and authority affected others and constituted an element of serious discord. She left the institution on September first, 1921.

11. That Dr. Butler is guilty of conduct unbecoming a gentleman and a superintendent of the Sonoma State Home, in that he made statements that he knew were not true concerning employees and individuals by reason of which statements they were prevented from obtaining employment in other state institutions. And by reason of such conduct there is a lack of confidence in the superintendent and his integrity to the detriment of good order and discipline.

This charge was not substantiated. With all the above findings, the complainant agrees.

STAR SODA WORKS TAKES IN PARTNER

Sonoma's soda water factory, which has been so successfully conducted for the past two seasons by L. F. Nieman, has a new partner in the business, a half interest having been sold to J. C. Gouyea. The new firm is enlarging its bottling capacity, modernizing its plant with the latest machinery and has purchased a new Dodge delivery car. Messrs. Nieman & Gouyea promise the best beverages and service in the Valley.

TELEPHONE GIRL MARRIED

Miss Bergetta Hess, daughter of Mrs. M. Hess and sister of John Hess of Santa Rosa, was claimed as a bride October 12th by Melville Schueler of Marysville, at a pretty ceremony in the Methodist church at San Rafael. The pastor, Rev. Lloyd Brown, officiated. Mrs. Schueler has been in charge of the telephone office at Richmond. Mr. Schueler is a rancher of the Sacramento Valley.

RETURNED FROM SUMMER IN OREGON

Mrs. Georgia Stiekel, who has spent the summer in Oregon with her brother near Crater Lake, has returned to her Sonoma home. During her absence her son George was married, and the newlyweds were fondly greeted by her.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Watters has been named James Henry Watters.

It is with great attention as well as admiration I read the items penned by the Sonoma Index-Tribune's correspondent at El Verano. The versatile Archibald McKiver, although he has been a few years ago in those good old days before the war, when Archie and I crossed swords in a re- portorial contest, I must admit that he is still there with the goods. In those days this great Republic had no such an infliction as Volstead and "Dry" Forrest was a thing unknown in this neck of the woods. Archie, you are all right, and all the Index-Tribune wants back on the staff is that bright lady reporter whose nose de plume was "Happy Jack" of Schellville. EASY JIM.
